The hostess is the first person our clients see and speak with, when they walk through the door. So, we are looking for someone who is warm, welcoming, and has an excellent memory. A great first impression is critical. In addition, the hostess is required to work hand-in-hand with the door cashier, in close quarters. Must be well organized and constantly aware of all surroundings. In charge of handling all reservations for VIP members. Responsible for checking with our guest periodically throughout the night, to ensure their needs and wants are being met by our staff members. Must establish a good rapport with all guests and have the ability to make them feel appreciated, comfortable and satisfied... from the time they arrive until the time they leave our establishment.

Compensation: DOE, plus tips, plus generous bonuses.

WAITRESS

Experience is not a requirement, however it is always a plus! Must be self-motivated to work hard, while maintaining a winning personality and positive attitude. We are looking for team players with excellent customer service skills. Need to be able to handle numerous customers simultaneously and fill their requests in a timely manner. The waitress must have a sharp appearance, be willing to participate in our themed events, and project the highest level of professionalism and enthusiasm toward all guests.

DOOR CASHIER & GUEST RELATIONS

Experience required. Should possess strong attributes in sales, organization, customer service, and financial responsibility. Must be knowledgeable in working with Mac computers, Microsoft Office, and FileMaker Pro. BI-LINGUAL is a definite plus!

The door cashier / guest relations position is critical in the success and operation of the front door and related-systems. Selling, upgrading, renewing and recording memberships are a large part of what this job entails. It is necessary to be well skilled and precise at handling high-volumes of money, running credit card charges, collecting payments over phone and thru PayPal, and counting down all door money at the end of the night.

Compensation: DOE, plus bonuses

SECURITY / VIP DOOR MONITOR

Experience is definitely preferred, but not required. Seeking a responsible team player who is able to maintain a steady personality, while working the door using a "SMILE, chat and a FRIENDLY but firm demeanor" in order to diffuse and resolve any tense situations that may arise. Need to be presentable and dress appropriately.

The security / VIP door monitor is specifically responsible for ensuring that only authorized guests are allowed in the Vip Area, as well as keeping a log sheet of all members who are granted entrance into the VIP area. We are seeking someone who is proficient in sales, in order to gain upgraded packages to our guests. Must have an honest character and possess the ability to not be easily persuaded into allowing unauthorized guests into VIP area without the sale of an upgraded membership.
